

RON ZOLMAN, CHA, CHE, CRME

Manager, Learning and Delivery

Ron started his career as a front desk agent at a Super 8 Motel in Spokane, WA. Within four years he worked his way up to become the assistant manager and then finally the general manager of the hotel.

His experience and knowledge in hotel operations led to a key position in operations within the management company which managed five hotels in the area.

Soon after, Ron joined Wyndham Hotel Group to provide property management systems installation and training to properties. As a key member of the training team, he provided operations training to opening properties for several brands.

Ron currently delivers orientation and regional trainings for several of the brands within Wyndham Hotel Group.
